

Sunday Punnies → Pun

This is a pun because I am playing with the word sound "Tow". It could mean to pull or the body part. In the cartoon a tow truck is carrying a toe. A strength in the illustration is the severed toe. It is gross and catches the viewers eye. A weakness is that my tow truck does not look like a modern tow truck, but I can live with that. A humor strength is the word play: simple = funny. A weakness is that it is my dad's joke.
