

What are your Speak movie-watching tips?

Lots of readers have held Speak movie parties. If you want to do that, here are some games to play while you're watching:

- Count how many times Melinda speaks.
- Watch for lines that came from the book.
- Figure out what famous teen movie the director paid homage to in one of the cafeteria scenes.
- Throw popcorn at the TV whenever IT shows up.
- Figure out what scenes were not in the book.
- Speculate on why the director chose the ending she did.

You can also play Spot the Food:

- Ho-Hos
- Mashed potatoes
- Powdered doughnuts
- Pop-Tarts
- Very bad turkey soup
- Pizza
- Applesauce

If you have read Catalyst in addition to Speak, award yourself five points and add these to your menu:

- Jell-O salad (preferably with fruit and nuts mixed in)
- Cheetos®
